

The Greenery Dining Policies

---

The Greenery Behavior

The community nature of a college dining commons is unique. Unlike any other eating situation, elements of both a home atmosphere and a restaurant dining environment are present. Students must respect the rights of, and cooperate with, other diners in maintaining a clean and pleasant environment. We ask your cooperation in keeping the Greenery atmosphere one that everyone can enjoy.

The Greenery Attire

Casual, comfortable attire may be worn at all regular meals served in the college dining facilities. However, students without shirts, shoes, or wearing only bathing suits will not be admitted to The Greenery.

Second Helpings

Unlimited seconds on all food items are available at each meal session in The Greenery. However, all food must be consumed in The Greenery with the exception of one baked good or one piece of fruit which may be taken out with your meal.

Absences

Room and board charges take into consideration occasional missed meals. Therefore, refunds are not granted in the event of meal absences.

Misuse of your Meal Card

Students who allow others to use their meal card will have their card confiscated and be subject to College misconduct proceedings. Students who use a card that is not their own will be subject to a fine of $10 plus the cost of the meal(s) eaten and will be subject to college conduct proceedings. When you lend your card to someone else, food service costs increase. The expense for Dining Service's operations is shared by all students; cost increases are passed on in the form of higher room and board rates.
